

CMAS International Aquathlon Judge Course 2012

The Course will be held in Perm. Russia. 24 April 2012

It consist theory and practice

The course will take place in swimming pool before the 2-nd CMAS European Aquathlon Championship

I Theory (3 hours, in the class)

1. Equipment
2. Categories
 - Age categories
 - Weight categories
3. Combats
4. Fouls
5. Penalties
6. Injuries
7. Competition Systems
8. Scoring
9. Judges
 - Referee
 - Side judges in the water
 - Surface judges (referee's assistant)
 - Starter
 - Time keeper
 - Recording Secretary
 - Side judges on surface
 - Announcer
10. Signals
 - Sounds signals
 - Hand signals

II Practice in the swimming pool (during the training) – 2 hours

1. Referee
2. Side judges in the water
3. Surface judges (Referee's assistant)
4. Starter
5. Time keeper
6. Recording Secretary
7. Side judges on surface
8. Announcer

After the course the students will participate in the 2-nd CMAS Aquathlon European Championship either as judges or as assistance of the judges. Students who receive high mark (min 95 points according to the Main judge decision) will get the CMAS International Judge Certificate.

Course will be translated into English by Igor Ostrovsky (Israel); Russian by Sergey Zigalov (Russia)

Aquathlon Commission CMAS